

Conference: Development of Empirical Research Using Panel Data

Supported by: Panel Data Research Center, Keio University
Institute for Economic Studies, Keio University
JSPS KAKENHI Grant Number 16H06323

Organizer: Hideo Akabayashi and Yoshio Higuchi

Date : 2017.3.17(Thurs.)
Place : G-SEC Lab, the 6th floor, East Research Building,
Mita Campus, Keio University

Program

11:00		Registration Opens
11:15		Opening Remark (Hideo Akabayashi)
Part 1 Chair: Hideo Akabayashi (Keio U.)
11:20-12:00		Can an Economic Structural Model Support Hypothetical and Experimental Evidence? Preference Parameters Before and After the Great East Japan Earthquake Yuto Nakanishi (Kyoto U.), Masamune Iwasawa (U. Tokyo)
12:00-13:00		Lunch Break
13:00-13:40		China's Rail Projects Cheng Hsiao (University of Southern California)
13:40-14:10		Coffee Break
Part 2 Chair: Yoshio Higuchi (Keio U.)
14:10-14:50		Cross-sectional weights and longitudinal weights in Japan Household Panel Survey Kayoko Ishii (Keio U.)
14:50-15:30		Does Money Matter? Exploring a Causal Link between Family Income and Educational Spending and Child Outcomes through National Child Allowance Policy Shimpei Sano (Chiba U.)